

KOENIG & BAUER

Software upgrade to V12

we're on it.

Software upgrade to V12

Your benefits at a glance:

- stable optimized software systems
- extended diagnostics options for the customer and the Kammann service
- new article forms
- faster calculations
- optimized, quick initial position ride
- simple user and language switching
- adjusting the times for transport and printing processes
- configurability of machine stop positions

- with this upgrade all software modules of the machine are brought up to date
- this concerns the following software modules:
 - software PLC control
 - software article management
 - software user interface (HMI)
 - software curve calculation
 - software safety technology
 - firmware of the MLC control
 - firmware of the drives
 - firmware safety SPS
 - software of the optical registration systems

Characteristics

- software upgrade
- the upgrade is done by one of our qualified service technicians on site
- our technician also takes over the training with regard to the new functions

