KOENIG & BAUER

Software upgrade to V14

we're on it.

Software upgrade to V14

Your benefits at a glance:

- new article forms

- faster calculations

- optimized, quick initial position ride

- simple user and language switching

- adjusting the times for transport and printing process

- configurability of machine stop positions

- with this upgrade all software modules of the machine are brought up to date

- this concerns the following software modules:
  - software PLC control
  - software article management
  - software user interface (HMI)
  - software curve calculation
  - software safety technology
  - firmware of the MLC control
  - firmware of the drives
  - firmware safety SPS
  - software of the optical registration systems

Characteristics

- software upgrade

- exchange of hardware components

- the upgrade is done by one of our qualified service technicians on site

- our technician also takes over the training with regard to the new functions

- the basic requirement is the equipment of the machine with Sercos III

Koenig & Bauer Kammann